

Teen Ambassador Program

FAQ

How much time commitment is involved?

The program requires a minimum of 4 hours per month. This includes:

- 2 hours of monthly meetings: Stay informed, get trained, connect with fellow volunteers, and discuss and work on projects.
- 2 hours of volunteer service: You'll be actively involved in making a difference in our programs, focus groups, or fundraising events.

What if I can't commit 4 hours in a single month?

No worries! We understand schedules can be flexible. You can make up for missed hours in the following months as long as the total commitment is met.

What will I be doing as a volunteer at RBF's programs?

- Greet and support participants: Be the first friendly face people see when they arrive at any program. Introduce new members, and help them feel welcome and supported during the sessions.
- Support activity facilitators: Help guide attendees through engaging experiences at The FORT or the Hangout.

When will I hear back about my application?

Applications close on April 30th. We'll review all applications and reach out to everyone by the second week of May.
